*2022-23
Program Series*

Sponsored by Resurrection Bay
Historical Society

Meet in the Community
Room of Seward
Community Library &
Museum at 236 Sixth
Avenue for a monthly program at 7 pm.

Free and open to the public, these lectures offer insight into our community's very interesting history.

Oct. 20

Dan Seavey and Lee Poleske, will describe the life of Alfred Lowell, whose parents and siblings arrived in 1884 to homestead what is now the town of Seward.

Nov. 17

“Videos from the Vault” will offer selections from the RBHS archives, including home movies made by U.S. Deputy Marshal Ralph Reed in the late 1920s.

Jan. 19

Doug Capra, local historian and author, will delve into the upcoming Alaska Railroad centennial and how it relates to Seward’s history in his program “The Ties That Bind: Alaska Railroad Stories Between Steel.”

Feb. 16

Kim Kowalski-Rogers will reminisce about the heyday of Dreamland Bowl – for many years, the community’s favorite recreation spot.

March 16

Frank E. Baker will share stories and photos about his childhood years in Seward in the 1940s-50s.

April 20

Seward historian Lee Poleske will tell us more about the incredible Iditarod Trail in his program “Iditarod Facts and One Fable.”

History programs start at 7 pm in Community Room

May 18

Carol Hatch and Phyllis Shoemaker will review prose and poetry about Seward, including poems written by Ralph Andrews.
